

Simon Pawlik
Director

A painter by education, specializing in graphic design. Advertisement film director by calling.

Simon has been working with Platige Image for a while. Before that, he spent over 8 years polishing his skills as a supervisor and art director at Orka And LUNAPARK, two post-production studios where he also tried his hand at directing.

His professional output includes projects for global brands like Microsoft, HBO, Fiat, MTV, Huawei, McDonalds, Red Bull, Virgin Mobile, Castrol, and Nokia.

His film The Connected Flights, developed by Simon for clothing brand Kubatek was included in the official selection at Cannes in a Van film festival, won the Silver KTR in the Cinematography category, and the Bronze KTR in the Music category. It also won in the Best Fashion category at the 2013 Miami Fashion Film Festival, it received the Main Prize at the Warsaw Fashion Film Festival, and was nominated in the Best Music and Best Editing categories at the 2014 London Fashion Film Festival.

Simon is especially passionate about projects that involve advanced post-production techniques, especially 3D and VFX technologies. He also loves developing lifestyle movies, based on working closely with excellent acting talent and top-notch storytelling.
