

Axel Stasny

Axel Stasny works as a director and cinematographer in the fields of documentary film, feature film, and select commercial projects.

Born in Vienna, Axel studied theater, film, and media studies at the University of Vienna and graduated from the New York Film Academy in 2009 under the guidance of his mentor, Vojtech Jasny.

As a director and cinematographer, his work has been featured on the Academy Award shortlist and on Netflix, and has screened at renowned festivals such as the Busan International Film Festival.