

Borbala
Director

Borbala is a commercial, film and music video director who explores human narratives in the fiction space.

She enjoys depicting deep emotions equally through movements, dialogues and characters and often showing the beauty in what society has discarded. Her films illustrate a dynamic rhythm between the characters within the frame, which she often contrasts with raw locations.

She boldly mixes fun quirkiness with deep, witty, thought-provoking metaphors.